GET AN EARLY START TO THE FALL HIKING SPREE ON AUGUST 25

The 56th annual Fall Hiking Spree officially begins September 1, but eager hikers can get a five-day head start.

On Sunday, August 25, from 12 to 3 p.m. at Silver Creek Metro Park (5000 Hametown Rd., Norton), visitors can meet Summit Metro Parks staff and mascots and hike the 2-mile Chippewa Trail for spree credit. Fall Hiking Spree T-shirts and other gift shop merchandise will be for sale and Fall Hiking Spree forms will be available.

All other spree hikes must be completed September 1 through November 30. For information about the Fall Hiking Spree, including trails and locations, visit hikingspree.summitmetroparks.org.
