SWEET COLLABORATION LEADS TO CUSTOM ICE CREAM FLAVOR TO CELEBRATE SUMMIT METRO PARKS CENTENNIAL

Shoppers this year at Pav’s Creamery and Acme Fresh Markets will find a new ice cream flavor for sale among Pav’s signature pink-and-gray pints: Salted Maple Pecan. Salted Maple Pecan, with emphasis on the “S-M-P” in Summit Metro Parks, is the new frozen dessert collaboratively developed to celebrate the park district’s centennial anniversary. This local ice cream is made, sold and available right here in Summit County.

“Nothing says summer like ice cream. This custom, park-inspired, SMP flavor is a tasty way to celebrate the SMP Centennial. We want to bring some of the parks to your taste buds, and the project benefits the Summit Metro Parks Foundation thanks to our partners, Acme Fresh Market and Pav’s Creamery,” said Jen M. Harvey, chief of Philanthropy at Summit Metro Parks.

Consumers of the new flavor can expect to enjoy salted caramel ice cream base with swirls of maple syrup and pecans. The flavor connection to the park district is represented through the maple syrup, with the sugar maple emblematic of many forested areas of SMP and a key feature of the park district’s logo. This limited-edition pint will be offered at Pav’s and Acme Fresh Market locations.
