

Sounds of Spring

Spotted Salamander

Cooper's Hawk

DO YOU HEAR WHAT I HEAR?

Take this nature quiz by circling the correct answer. Check your answers then research anything that may interest you or that may have surprised you.

Good luck, and remember: Nature is awesome!

1. This amphibian produces a quacking sound, much like a duck. Who is it?

Wood Frog	Spotted Salamander	American Bullfrog
-----------	--------------------	-------------------
2. Which bird says its name as one of its calls?

Northern Cardinal	Black-capped Chickadee	American Robin
-------------------	------------------------	----------------
3. You can calculate the temperature by how many times a snowy tree cricket chirps.

True	or	False
------	----	-------
4. This bird of prey's call is often used in movies and cartoons to represent the call of the Bald Eagle. Which one is it?

Red-tailed Hawk	Cooper's Hawk	Osprey
-----------------	---------------	--------
5. Coyotes are known as the singing dogs of North America.

True	or	False
------	----	-------
6. This common bird can mimic a variety of sounds, from those of other birds to car horns and sirens. Who is it?

Northern Cardinal	Common Crow	Red-tailed Hawk
-------------------	-------------	-----------------
7. This animal has very limited hearing, but can feel vibrations so well that it is virtually impossible to sneak up on. Who is it?

Opossum	Red-eared Slider Turtle	Gray Squirrel
---------	-------------------------	---------------
8. Which animal makes no known vocalizations?

American Mink	Spotted Salamander	Raccoon
---------------	--------------------	---------

summitmetroparks.org | #AtHomeInNature

Answers: 1. Wood Frog 2. Black-capped Chickadee 3. True 4. Red-tailed Hawk 5. True 6. Common Crow 7. Red-eared Slider Turtle 8. Spotted Salamander