To obtain a complete copy of our rules and regulations, please visit our website or call the administrative offices.

Other conditions of your permit include, but are not limited to:

- 1) If cancellation of a reservation is necessary, the reservation fee will NOT be refunded. In lieu of a refund, and if notification is given at least two weeks prior to the reservation date, one reuse of a facility will be granted within the 12-month period following the date of the original reservation, pending availability. Additional charges may be required depending on the reuse selection. See “cancellations” below for additional information.
Note: Summit Metro Parks is not responsible for inclement weather.
- 2) The group representative named on the invoice assumes personal liability for any damage, destruction or removal of park property. To assure compliance with all regulations, the shelter may be inspected by authorized employees of the park district during and after use. If found to be damaged and/or unclean as a result of the permit holder’s activity, the permit holder will be invoiced by Summit Metro Parks for all costs incurred (minimum of $250), including any reasonable attorney fees in collecting such sums if needed. This includes the person (s) renting the facility, all guests and invitees, any guests or invitees of your guests, and/or persons who are present at the facility during the hours it is being rented by you, except for employees or volunteers of Summit Metro Park who are present in their official capacity as employee or volunteer of Summit Metro Parks.
- 3) You must be 18 or older to make a reservation. One adult must be present for the entire duration of the reservation. For groups with individuals younger than 18, there must be one adult present at all times per every 20 minors.
- 4) Fire is permitted in picnic grills for culinary purposes only. Portable stoves and/or fryers require a Special Use Permit and may not be used under the shelter.
- 5) Only tabletop or free-standing decorations are permitted. No decorations, posters or other items may be attached (nails, staples, tacks, tape, command strips, etc.) to any part of the shelter or in any area of the park. Freestanding signs and decorations must be removed by departure time. Confetti and glitter are prohibited.

- 6) Commercial uses of Metro Parks' facilities are prohibited. No person may sell any items or service while on park property. Gambling for money, valuable items or selling tickets for raffles or other games of chance are also prohibited, unless permit approved by Executive Director.
- 7) All deliveries of food, soft drinks, etc. must be made during the hours of the permit, and all items must be removed from the facility at the conclusion of the function.
- 8) Shelters are available to the general public on a first-come, first-served basis when not reserved. Others must yield the use of a shelter to groups with a reservation.
- 9) A Special-Use Permit (SUP) may be required for, but not limited to, weddings, organizations, portable culinary equipment, paid professionals (i.e. caterers, disc jockeys, photographers, party planners, etc.), rental companies (i.e. inflatables, chair/tent rentals, etc.). A Certificate of Liability Insurance may also be required. When in doubt, please call the administrative office. Requests that involve animals will NOT be approved.
- 10) Issued Special-Use Permits and shelter reservations are not transferable to another person or group.
- 11) The permit holder agrees to indemnify and hold Summit Metro Parks harmless from any and all complaints, claims, actions or causes of action resulting from any injury or damage to any person or property resulting from the lodge rental that is not the result of the negligence of the Summit Metro Parks, including, but not limited to any damages, attorneys' fees and the costs of such action incurred by Summit Metro Parks.
